

Watches

Please read carefully the following regarding the purchase of watches.

The descriptive data of the watches shows the general state of preservation and any restoration, is provided for guidance only and not exhaustive, and should not be considered a "Warranty."

The same applies to the possible Condition Report required by buyer.

The lots are sold with the specific conditions of how they are exposed, since the mechanical construction may, over the years, having undergone maintenance work.

International Art Sale srl does not assume any responsibility for the operation status, restoration or replacement parts. The buyer is obliged to examine carefully the lots in the days before the sale and ask for clarification about the expert. No claim will be accepted after the adjudication therefore as to read this information, as per regulation : Conditions of Sale Art. 17.

If not expressly indicated in the description, straps and bracelets are considered to be non-genuine

Waterproof watches have been opened to check the originality and the general state therefore no longer assured impermeability. We recommend an inspection at its confidence watch-maker.

Please note that the import, in some countries, of materials from species in extinction danger is regulated by CITES legislation.

For watches with quartz movement it is not provided any information regarding the perfect functioning.

The Direction